ıere's nothing sadder than a disgruntled ıployee. But let's face it, bright young en and women have a way of getting eved when their jobs turn out to be ss than they were cracked up to be.

At Chesapeake & Potomac, we're happy say, we have quite a record for keeping ır employees gruntled. Particularly llege graduates with plenty of get up ıd go.

Why do these "comers" find the grass green at C&P?

There are a number of reasons. The pay is good from the very start. You earn while you learn. Raises are frequent. The people you work with are interesting and stimulating. If you've got what it takes, you advance fast. We could go on . . .

Better yet, why not drop in and let us show you some "profiles" of recent college graduates who are now in responsible management positions. Your own college placement officer will be happy to help you set up an interview.
